

Johnson to the bill.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Rod Johnson, on the amendment to LB 474. Senator Johnson, are you here? Senator Johnson is here. We're at ease for a moment and we'll begin with this amendment. Mr. Clerk, does this appear in the Journal?

CLERK: Mr. President, it does. It is on page 1247 of the Journal.

SENATOR LANDIS: The amendment appears on page 1247 of the Journal. Senator Johnson, ten minutes to introduce your motion.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President, I've been caught off guard. Why don't I just pass over the amendment for now and move on to other amendments filed.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Loran Schmit would move to amend. Senator Schmit's amendment is on page 1322 of the Journal.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Schmit, with your Journal amendment, 1322 on LB 474.

SENATOR SCHMIT: It's just a technical amendment, Mr. President. We changed the "seventy-five" to "ninety" in one place. We did not change it in the other. I move the adoption of the amendment.

SENATOR LANDIS: You've heard the motion. Are there other lights? There are none. Would you like...oh, Senator Johnson has his light on.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Yes, I have a question for Senator Schmit.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Schmit, will you yield?

SENATOR SCHMIT: Yes, I'll yield.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Senator Schmit, would you just please elaborate a little bit further on what your change would do.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Sometime back, I believe it was on General File, we amended this bill to provide that when the NRD mandates there be certain types of work done that the NRD would pay for 90 percent of the cost, the land owner would pay for 10 percent. And the reason I raised it was because we have today a multitude
